Description:

Large antique four-sheet wall map of Asia, by Hubert Brué, one of his "Carte Encyprototype" series, first issued in 1814.

The map is exceptionally detailed and is comparable to Aaron Arrowsmith's work in its quantity of information and quality of engraving.

The map covers the Ottoman Empire, Arabia, the detailed and complicated borders of India, impressive detail in Siberia and the internal provinces of China, the Philippines, and East Asia.

This is the later state of 1819 with the engraved stamp to the lower left of the title "Revue & Augmentée par l'Auteur en Avril 1819".

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Four sheets, unjoined. Wide margins.
