Description:

Interesting broadsheet trip map of the West, illustrating the railroads west of the Mississippi River, extending from Chicago and Memphis to the West Coast.

The map notes:

The Santa Fe is the only line under one management "all the way" -- to California and Phoenix -- thus insuring uniformity of service.

Six famous Santa Fe trains daily

On the verso are the pencil notes for the trip to the west taken by Elizabeth Booth, from Philadelphia to Los Angeles, including the costs of the trip, along with notes on the Indian Detours to New Mexico and the Grand Canyon.
