Description:

Scarce map of British Columbia and environs, published by A & C Black.

The map provides excellent topographical detail for the region, illustrating lakes, rivers, mountains, etc.

A number of rivers in the map are illustrated with dashed lines, indicating a lack of definitive knowledge of the course of the rivers.

A number of Hudson Bay Trading Company posts and forts (some abandoned) are noted.

The line of Canada's first transcontinental railroad is also shown.
