Description:

New York - Charleston - Bermuda

Rare set of 3 harbor charts, drawn from Henry Popple's 20 sheet map of the British Colonies in North America.

While the map maker is not formally identified, we infer from the initials (PB), the date of the map, the privilege and the address on the map "Quay de la Megisserie au St. Espirit pres le Pont Neuf," that the maker must be Philippe Buache.

This is one of the earliest obtainable maps to incorporate the views from Popple's map.

Rarity

This is the first time we have ever seen this map on the market.
