Description:

Rare Variant of Blanchard's Fine Post-Fire Map of the City of Chicago

A scarce folding lithographed map of Chicago, colored by wards, by one of Chicago's foremost 19th-century map publishers.

The present example has been overprinted in red, with the key noting that the red overprinting shows:

- City Limits -- Heavy red line
- Wards -- dashed red line
- Fire limits -- thin red line

In addition, the recently completed Crystal Palace is also overprinted in red, with a note that it is "To be Completed September 1st 1873 for the Great Exposition." The red overprinting is also used to highlight parks and major roads connecting the parks in the west.
