Description:

Rare engraved map of eastern Estonia between Lakes Vörtsjärv and Peipus, with the town of Doerpt (now Tartu) at the center.

The map features an attractively-engraved coat of arms of the city of Doerpt at the upper-left.

This map was included in Ludwig August Mellin's Riga-published Atlas von Liefland, oder von den beyden Gouvernementern u. Herzogthümern Lief- und Ehtland, und der Provinz Oesel.

This example of the map was never bound in an atlas, instead being mounted on linen for individual use.
