Description:

Scarce separately issued map of the Holy Land, published by F. von Rappard in Berlin.

The map shows both Biblical, Historical and modern place names and boundaries. The routes of the the Israelites exodus from Egypt is shown, as are the wanderings of the disciples of Christ and the the route taken by Alexander the Great.

The map includes a very unique topographical style and shows regions, towns, lakes, rivers, etc.

A key at the left identifies various ancient and modern details. The tables, insets and diagrams provide interesting historical information.
