Description:

Extremely rare pair of miniature maps on one sheet, from a miniature Italian Atlas.

The first example we have ever seen. The upper map extends from Baja California and the Pacific to Texas, centered on the Rio Grande. Full of very curious place names. The second map extends from Texas and the Missouri River to Florida and the Carolinas, and north to the Great Lakes, centered on the Mississippi River. The map describes an English Louisiana, east of the Mississippi River and French Louisiana to the west. More curious place names.

A truly rare pair of miniature maps, centered on Texas.
