Description:

Very scarce miniature engraved chart of the town of Monaco.

This is possibly the first English printed chart of the famous city-state of Monaco.

The chart includes soundings in the bay of Monaco, the famous citadel, information about the fortifications, details of some extraneous buildings, a chapel, and mills.

Maps of the town of Monaco are extremely rare. This is the earliest map - and only the second 19th-century map - of the city that we have ever handled.

Detailed Condition:

Minor toning at the bottom edge.
