Description:

Highly decorative regional map of New York City and Vicinity. Shows towns, counties, railroads, soundings, post offices, turnpikes, canals, and a host of other details. Vignettes of the City Hall of New York City and Brooklyn in the lower corners and decorative title. One of the most decorative pocket maps of the NYC Metropolitan Area issued in the latter part of the 19th Century, offered here in nearly flawless condition, with original decorative cloth covered covers. First issued in 1846, this is the last edition of the map and one of the scarcest. Haskell 909; 915.
