Description:

Large sea chart of Magdalena Bay on the Pacific Coast of Baja California.

The map was prepared for the British Admiralty based on American surveys conducted at the end of the 19th century.

The map covers the bay, including the large Isla Santa Margarita. It has comprehensive soundings as well as a detailed treatment of the topography.

A small red pen correction was made in 1926, before which the chart was updated in print to 1922.
