Description:

Detailed sea chart of Isla de Cedros, one of the larger islands off the western coast of Baja California, published by the British Admiralty in 1907 (the update listing says the edition was 1898, though the magnetic variation in the title is given for 1907.)

The map includes detailed topography of the island and adjacent landforms, as well as detailed soundings and other bathymetric data.

The Royal Navy surveying of the area started in 1846 with H.M.S. Herald and Pandora.
