Garcia Cubas' map of Puebla is one of the earliest maps of the modern state of Puebla published in Mexico. The surrounding text includes a wealth of information regarding Puebla, including History, Climate, Agriculture, Minerals, Livestock, Commerce, Population, and Itineraries.

Antonio Garcia y Cubas was Mexico's first great map maker and his work is highly sought after. This map shows the various regions within Puebla, including, towns, roads, rivers, etc. Only 300 examples of the atlas were reportedly printed and separate maps rarely appear on the market.
