Description:

The First Atlas Map of the State of Coahuila.

Scarce map of the State of Coahuila in Mexico, from Antonio Garcia y Cubas' monumental Atlas Geographico, Estadistico e Historico de la Republica Mexicana, the first atlas of the Mexican Republic.

Garcia Cubas's map is one of the earliest maps of the modern state of Coahuila published in Mexico. The map shows towns, roads, rivers, and topographical features. It shows the state's border with Texas along the Rio Grande, here called the Rio Bravo del Norte, as the river is known in Mexico.

The surrounding text includes a wealth of information regarding Sonora, including History, Climate, Agriculture, Minerals, Livestock, Commerce, Population, and Itineraries.

Coahuila

The towns of Monclova and Saltillo are labeled.

Antonio Garcia y Cubas was Mexico's first great map maker and his work is highly sought after. Only 300 examples of the atlas were reportedly printed and separate maps rarely appear on the market.
