Description:

Scarce antique engraved map of India and Southeast Asia, by Laurie and Whittle, and with information from James Rennell, published in London in 1794.

A wonderful map of South and Southeast Asia, from the end of the 18th century. Laurie and Whittle's map provides detailed coverage of the kingdoms and polities of the region, naming the following: Gannan or Tonkin; Cochin China; Tsiampa; the Kingdom of Cambodia; the Kingdom of Lao; the Kingdom of Siam; Malaya Peninsula; Pegu; Arakan; Ava Yava; etc.

The mapping in India will have come from Rennell's famous survey of India, which took place in the 1760s and '70s but was still the gold standard in Indian cartography in 1800.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color in wash. Dampstain at the bottom edge, as illustrated.
