Description:

Nice example of Thomson's map of the Southeastern United States, published in Edinburgh.

Thomson's map is bounded by the Atlantic, East and West Florida, the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers, Lake Erie, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

The map features Georgia extending from the Atlantic to the Mississippi River, pre-dating Alabama and Missouri Territories.

Indiana appears in northern Virginia. Shows the 1795 Treaty Line south of Lake Erie. The Jersey Company and Illinois Company are shown just north and east of St. Louis. Ohio is named, but not delineated with color.

A number of midwestern towns, Indian Villages, Indian Tribes and forts are shown throughout the map, along with other interesting information throughout.
