Mouth of the Columbia River From a Preliminary Survey . . . 1851

Stock#: 72621
Map Maker: United States Coast Survey
Date: 1851
Place: Washington
Color: Uncolored
Condition: VG
Size: 27 x 17 inches
Price: SOLD

Description:

Detailed sea chart of the mouth of the Columbia River, with a fantastic profile view of the entrance to the Columbia River.

The chart reaches to Young's Bay and the township of Astoria and includes soundings, sailing directions and other details.

The profile view is quite exceptional--one of the most decorative published by the US Coast Survey in this period.

Detailed Condition:

Two paper edge splits, repaired with archival tape. Minor toning at folds.
