

Barry Lawrence Ruderman Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

Map Showing Routes of the Pacific Steamship Co. . . . 1911

Stock#: 72963
Map Maker: Pacific Coast Steamship Co.
Date: 1911
Place: San Francisco
Color: Color
Condition: VG+
Size: 16 x 31.7 inches
Price: SOLD

Description:

Scarce promotional map of the west coast routes served by the Pacific Steamship Company, the oldest and largest of the commercial carriers operating on the west coast of North America, dating back to the 1840s.

The map illustrates the primary commercial routes of the company, from Alaska to Cabo San Lucas and Mazatlan, with smaller maps showing routes around Los Angeles, The central coast, San Francisco Bay, Eureka and Puget Sound.

Barry Lawrence Ruderman
Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

---

Map Showing Routes of the Pacific Steamship Co. . . . 1911

The company routes are shown linked with major railroad lines.

Rarity

While maps of the Pacific Steamship Company prior to 1900 are relatively common, we note only 1 map in OCLC between 1900 and 1920 with a similar title.

Detailed Condition: