Description:

Beautiful topographical map of the Côte d'Azur and southwestern Alps, designed by F. Hugo d' Alési to promote railway tourism in the region.

The map extends from Briançon in the north to Monaco in the southeast and Aubagne in the southwest. There is an inset of the Marseille region in the lower-left corner.

Frederic Alexianu Hugo d'Alesi was a major French poster artist at the end of the 19th century whose work was characterized by luxurious and exotic imagery rendered in rich and diverse palettes.

Detailed Condition:

Backed on paper and linen. Some creasing. Lower left-hand margin somewhat ragged, as illustrated.
