Description:

Nice example of Hartmann Schedel's incunable view of Kraków from the German edition of Schedel's Liber Chronicum, perhaps the single most influential secular illustrated book of the 15th century and one of the landmark printed works of the 15th century.

Schedel's view of Crackow is one of the earliest obtainable views of the city and realistically the only large format 15th-century illustration of the city available to collectors.

The view is taken facing west, with Casmirus (Kazimierz) on the left, and Celpardia (Kleparz) on the right.

Detailed Condition:

Small stain at the leaf number, upper right.
