Description:

Highly detailed map of Colorado, hand colored by counties and showing townships, towns, roads, mountains, rivers, lakes, mines, plateaus, railroads, etc. One of the most detailed maps of the period. A later edition of the earliest obtainable map of Colorado Territory to appear in a Commercial atlas. The appearance of Routt County (established 1877) and absences of several counties established in the following year delineates the dating of the map.
