The lines include 6 named railroad lines and the Indian River Steamboat Company, along with the lines of the St. Augustine Route, servicing the Atlantic Coast as far north as Halifax.

The towns of Biscayne and Miami are named in South Florida, as is Tuscanoggee Camp.

The name Tropical Trunk Line dates to the mid-1880s. The first appearance we could find was in 1886, but the company did not begin actively advertising the name until 1889.
