Description:

Promoting New Riverside, Located in the Heart of Jacksonville's Best Residence Section

Rare large format map of Jacksonville, Florida, engraved by Wrigley Engr & Electro. Co. of Jacksonville.

The map shows a number of sections in red, those being the subdivisions promoted by Albert Fendig & Co.

The map was issued compliments of Albert Fendig & Co. and also bears the name of Ellis, Curtis & Kooker, Civil Engineers and Surveyors in Jacksonville.

Jacksonville is shown in fine detail, including railroads, shipping terminals, lumber yards, an Ostrich Farm, parks, and other points of interest.

Rarity

The map was apparently issued annually, but is very rare. The earliest example we could locate was an 1912 edition in the Tampa-Hillsborough County Public Library.

OCLC locates 1 example of the 1914 edition (Jacksonville Public Library), 1 example of the 1915 edition (Jacksonville Public Library) and 1 example of the 1916 edition (Jacksonville Public Library).
