Description:

One of the first atlas map's of North America published in America, from Reid's American Atlas, the second Atlas published in the United States.

The map shows the region on the eve of the explorations of Lewis & Clark, Zebulon Pike and others who would open up the Transmississippi West. Only the earliest hint of the Rocky Mountains is present.

Nice detail along the Northwest Coast of America, but little detail off the coast.

Massive unnamed lake near Salt Lake City, which would become Lake Timpanogos.
