Description:

A very good example of this gorgeous large-format antique Colton map of Arizona and New Mexico.

The map depicts the proposed routes of a number of early railroads through the region, including the Southern Pacific, Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe, etc. along with the route of the Denver & Rio Grande, Kansas & Rio Grande and several others then in existence. Colored by counties. Many early towns, forts, mining districts and other details shown. Excellent topographical detail, with lots of mountains listed, along with a number of early roads in New Mexico.

An essential map for regional collectors.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Top and bottom edges with toning.
