Description:

Massive Idaho Territory.

A marvelous transitional map showing the changing territorial boundaries in the Western United States.

The map shows a number of important overland routes, including the Pony Express and U.S. Mail Route to San Diego. The map is also filled with Indian place names. British America is colored by Provinces, considerably more of them than currently exist in Canada.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Faint even toning. Trimmed into the page number at the right edge.
