Description:

Striking and highly detailed map of the Eastern United States, by one of England's foremost mapmakers of the period.

Includes a massive territory named Northwest Territory or Huron and even larger Sioux region. Excellent detail in Florida, including early roads.

The map shows Indian Tribes, towns, early railroads, roads, rivers, mountains, lakes, islands and a host of other details. An early appearance of Arkansas in its modern configuration. From an early edition Arrowsmith's The London Atlas of Universal Geography.
