Description:

The Earliest Obtainable Large View of Rome

Beautifully hand-colored example of Hartmann Schedel's incunabular view of Rome from Schedel's Liber Chronicum, perhaps the single most influential secular illustrated book of the 15th Century and one of the landmark printed works of the 15th Century.

Schedel's view of Rome is one of the earliest obtainable views of the Eternal City and realistically the only large format 15th Century illustration of the Rome available to collectors. While the illustration is less than accurate, the Castel de San Angelo, the Vatican, Colosseum, Pantheon, Belvedere and Mausoleum of Hadrian are clearly depicted among other features.
