Description:

One of Cellarius' full hemispheric maps of the constellations, this example showing the Northern Sky from earth. A gorgeous full color example. Cellarius' maps are the most coveted of celestial maps, blending the striking imagery of the golden age of Dutch Cartography with contemporary scientific knowledge. Cellarius full hemisphere maps are becoming increasingly difficult to find, especially in full color. A nice wide margined example, from Valk & Schenk's 1708 edition of Cellarius' atlas.
