Description:

Decorative pictorial travel map of Massachusetts, published by Ernest Dudley Chase.

The map was published for distribution at the state pavilion during the 1964 New York World's Fair.

The map is surrounded by vignettes by Ernest Dudley Chase showing historical points of interest, churches, sports, bridges, boating, monuments, schools and historic facts such as "Bell Invented Telephone Here", "Here Hawthorne wrote House of Seven Gables".

An inset map, not present in other versions, outlines various routes for getting to the fairgrounds in Queens.
