Description:

Rare, Weimar-issued map of the Tyrol region of Italy and Austria, extending between the Bodensee to the north and the Lago di Garda to the south.

The map shows the region in fine detail, with a particular focus on geography. Cities, towns, rivers, and more are also shown. A legend in the lower right shows the limits of various regions and principalities. Below is a map of the vicinity of Innsbruck.

This map was published in 1838 in Weimar by C. F. Weiland.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color, in outline. Severe oxidation, leading to cracking and loss particularly in colored border. Some dampstaining.
