Description:

Rare early map of Peloponnesus by Camocio, the first of this kind listed by Tooley under 'Morea'.

The map covers Morea and the contiguous coastline of the area around Athens and the Gulf of Lepanto.

The map discusses the history of the region as the former home of Sparta and later the Despotate of Morea under Byzantine Emperor John VI Kantakouzenos, before being taken by the Ottoman Empire in 1460.

Rarity

The map is extremely rare.

Detailed Condition:

Trimmed close, as is frequently the case with Lafreri maps.
