Description:

Lafreri map Of The Bay of Pozzoli

Rare separately published chart of the environs of Pozzoli, immediately to the west of Naples, published in Rome in 1586.

The present example of the map was re-printed by Orlandi in 1602.

The map is oriented with west towards the top of the map and includes Roman ruins, mountains, roads, rivers and extensive details of the region, immediately west of Naples.

Includes a list of 20 important places.

The map would later be copied by Van Aelst in 1590.
