Description:

Including Chippewa Territory!

Scarce folding map of the United States at the outset of the American Civil War, published by Wyld in London.

The map shows the United States east of the 100th meridian, focusing on the theater of the American Civil War for the British public.

Blue outlines indicate the "slave states," including the border states of Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri. Symbols indicate arsenals, forts, and railroads.

Wyld's Military Map of the United States, The Northern States, and the Southern Confederate States: with the Forts, Harbours, Arsenals, and Military Positions.

The borders of Minnesota, Dacotah Territory and Kansas are highly inaccurate. Chippewa is shown as a separate entity north of Dacotah.

The map includes large insets of the area around the City of Washington and District of Columbia, Country Round Washington, Pensacola Bay and its Fortifications, and Charleston.

Detailed Condition:

Segmented and laid on linen, with original covers.
