Description:

Fantastic 32-page travel brochure advertising the central route across the US from New York to San Francisco. The brochure is targeted at tourists from eastern states, but the descriptions and maps included focus on the areas west of Salt Lake City.

Five attractive pictorial maps appear in the brochure, which show the following areas: Salt Lake City, northern Nevada, Lake Tahoe, and southern and central California. (More images available upon request.) Each of these maps include attractive pictorial elements, showing, for example, the Great Salt Lake, Half Dome, and Sequoia trees.

The brochure contains abundant interesting details about locations which the advertised routes (mainly US Highway 40 west of Salt Lake City) cross, detailing the history and cultures of cities including Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, Sacramento, and San Francisco.

Detailed Condition:

16 sheets, 32 pages. Some discrete manuscript annotations in pencil. Conveniently folded at middle.
