Description:

Detailed antique map of the region centering on the Parana and Paraguay Rivers and the Rio de la Plata. The map is delicately colored and carefully engraved. Lines of longitude and latitude are shown. Numerous rivers and geographical features are named, and relief is shown pictorially.

The map extends northwards to include Rio Janeiro and south to Buenos Aires and extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Also shows Salta, Mendoza, La Paz, and several other major cities in the region. Includes a decorative title cartouche. This was one of the maps produced by Nicolas Bellin for the second edition of his Petite Atlas Maritime.
