Description:

Decorative English-language tourist map of the French wine region of Burgundy. The map is set in an attractive green color and shows the various scenic drives and places of interest that can be taken through the region. Pictorial images decorate the map, including one of the famous spires of the Cluny Abby.

The verso describes five routes which can be taken to visit the region. Dijon, Beaune, and Cluny are all described in-depth, with minor pencil markings highlighting interesting places to visit.
