Description:

Remarkable Original Hand-Color Example of Jaillot's Pays de la Loire

Attractive and decorative original antique map of the west coast of France centered on the outflow of the Loire River. The map shows this small region of France, positioned between Brittany and Aquitaine.

The region is centered on Nantes, a center of religion and navigation in western France. Numerous additional towns are shown on the map. Many roads, rivers, lakes, forests, and more are shown. The region is further subdivided into nine duchies and diocese.

Detailed Condition:

Spectacular original hand-color in full.
