Description:

Finely colored example of Emanuel Bowen's map of the Northern British Colonies.

Highly detailed regional map of the Northern British Colonies, extending from modern day Maine and the Bay of Fundy to the Upper Chesapeake and Delaware Rivers, most of Lake Ontario and the Country of the Iroquois.

The map includes some fascinating early colonial boundaries, which are highlighted in pink.

Includes many towns, forts, rivers, lakes, mountains and other details. Several excellent annotations.

The map was issued shortly before Mitchell's seminal 12 sheet map of North America.

Detailed Condition:

Minor soiling at lower center of the map.
