Description:

Detailed map of the course of the Danube, from Belgrade to the Black Sea, published by Sanson.

The map also tracks the course of the Dniester River showing the course of the Danube from Belgrade to its mouth in the Black Sea. The map extends north to include the Nistru River across the top of the map.

Larger towns on the Danube under the control of the Ottoman empire are located with a crescent symbol.

Beautifully engraved to show mountains, forests and rivers, and locate hundreds of villages.

The decorative title cartouche features cherubs and sea horses.
