Description:

Early Automobile Road Map for Alameda County

Scarce early automobile road map of Alameda County, published by the Board of Supervisors.

On the verso, there are two views of Livermore Valley and a number of other images of Alameda County landmarks, including the Greek Theater at UC Berkeley, Wheeler Hall and an Oakland Skyscraper.

The map also denotes rail lines and interesting features such oil wells, east of Livermore and the town of Tesla to the south of the oil wells, near Corral Hollow.

The text offers a motoring guide to the region.
