Description:

With Naval Battles of the Coast of Catalunya

Scarce late variant edition of Covens & Mortier's map of Northeastern Spain and Catalunya, issued in the midst of the War of Spanish Succession (1701-1714).

The map illustrates the mountains, roadways, and waterways which the armies used to travel the region, including key towns, villages, churches, and universities.

The map includes coats of arms of Catalunya, Valencia and Aragon, constituting one sheet of Mortier's 4 sheet map of the Iberian Peninsula.

However, unlike earlier additions, the present map includes several new embellishments, including:

- A depiction of the naval battles off the coast of Catalunya fought in 1705 and 1706.
- Major expansion of the roads and fortifications depicted in Catalunya, Valencia and Aragon, including showing which towns in the region.
