Description:

Later edition of one of the great vintage pictorial maps of Southern California, first published in 1946, with this being the last edition, published in 1963.

The coverage of the map extends from Malibu Beach, Topanga Canyon, and Mission San Fernando to Ensenada centered on San Juan Capistrano in the west. Death Valley, Las Vegas, Needles, Parker Dam, and the Salton Sea appear on the horizon.

This quintessential Southern California pictorial map focuses a lot on the history of the region; it depicts the routes of Anza and the Butterfield Stage. The vignettes at the side show Cabrillo, Portola, Sera, etc.

A lively and highly artistic view of Southern California!
