Description:

The Youth Red Cross Unites Young People All Over The World

Lively pictorial map of the world, promoting the work of the Youth Red Cross (CRJ). The image was apparently created in Belgium, but published in Canada.

Founded in 1919, the Youth Red Cross (CRJ) was intended to promote health and hygiene through social education. To support its mission, the CRJ published the journal Jeunesse from 1925 to 1940.
