Description:

Decorative map of North America, at the conclusion of warfare in North America during the French & Indian War.

The map shows an unknown NW Coast of America, predating Cook's explorations, New Albion in Northern California, the NW Coast as reported by De L'Isle, based upon Russian Discoveries, in 1741.

A substantial region in the Northwest simply labeled Parts Undiscovered, and a massive river of the West, based in part on Lahontan's mythical Longue River.

Large decorative title cartouche and compass rose.

Rarity

The map is scarce on the market. This is the second example we have offered in more than 20 years.
