Description:

An excellent 18th-century map of the Great Lakes and upper Mississippi River Basin, extending to the Lake of the Woods, published in Paris by Rigobert Bonne.

The map provides an excellent overview of the river systems in the Midwest and sources of the Mississippi, including early French forts, Indian names and settlements, and other geographic details. From one of the most famous and important works on the East and West Indies of the 18th Century.

Detailed Condition:

Faint even toning.
