Description:

Detailed city map of Washington, DC, showing streets, buildings, parks, bridges, hotels, theaters, churches, and more.

An inset shows the full district of Columbia, with adjoining parts of Maryland and Virginia including Georgetown, Carlington Heights, and Brightwood.

A key at the top right names seventy three points of interest in the city. The layout of the city is geometrical, with large diagonal avenues overlain on a grid structure, as envisioned by Pierre l'Enfant.
