Pictorial Map of the Horseshoe Route to Yosemite Valley and Mariposa Big Trees

Stock#: 77823
Map Maker: Peck-Judah Travel Bureaus
Date: 1924 circa
Place: California
Color: Color
Condition: VG
Size: 15 x 8.5 inches
Price: $ 245.00

Description:

Attractive and imposing pictorial map of Yosemite Valley and the high country, as seen from the west.

The view shows the Sierra Nevada in wonderful autumnal colors, overlain with indications of the "Horseshoe Route," which passes from Merced through Merced to Miami lodge and the Mariposa Grove of sequoia trees, looping in a one-way system of which the pamphlet makes much notice. The route finishes by descending into the Valley, with an optional side trip to Glacier Point.

The verso provides text descriptions and lists of fares for various day trips which can be undertaken, ranging in price from $24.75 to $29.75.

Detailed Condition:

Folding pamphlet. Pencil annotations on verso appearing to indicate the customer's choice of route. Minor fold wear.
