Description:

Interesting and highly detailed map of the Scotland, hand-colored by counties, published by John Thomson in Edinburgh.

The map shows towns, roads, rivers, lakes, islands, mountains, and more. The map displays Scotland's complex administrative structure at the time, with many enclaves, especially in the Highlands. The map includes an inset of the Orkneys and the Shetlands.

This is a very attractive and interesting map, and one of the best large format British maps of the period.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Very minor soiling at the horizontal centerfold.
