Description:

Large detailed map of the Northeastern United States, from the District of Main to Michigan, Ohio, Virginia and Delaware, including most of the Upper Chesapeake and the Washington DC area.

Highly detailed map, one of the earliest appearances of Michigan Territory. Many early forts still appear in Ohio, Michigan and the Western part of Pennsylvania nad Virginia. Indiana appears south of the Ohio River in Virginia, near Vienna. Ohio is also named Western Territory. The Maine-Canada Boundary disputes are still not resolved. The map names early counties, towns, Indians, etc.

Pinkerton's maps are highly detailed and larger format than contemporary maps by Cary and Thomson, and are prized for their precision and detail.
